SERIES NOTES: North Carolina A&T and Howard will meet for the 41st time on the gridiron...The Aggies 21-20 win over the Bison last season snapped the Aggies 25-game losing streak to conference schools...N.C. A&T has not won in Washington, D.C., since a 17-6 win over the Bison in 1998...The last time the Aggies were in D.C., they allowed the Bison to score 20 points in four minutes in a heartbreaking 35-27 defeat...The Aggies are 7-11-2 when playing in the nation's capital.

Aggies say goodbye to bye week
 The North Carolina A&T football team started having bye weeks on a regular basis in 1976. The Aggies are 13-20 following bye weeks since 1976. The opponent the Aggies have faced the most following a bye week is S.C. State. The Aggies have faced the Bulldogs nine times following a bye week. N.C. A&T is just 2-7 in those games. This will be a unique season for the Aggies because they will have two bye weeks. The Aggies did not play on Saturday because of a scheduling conflict that saw their scheduled opponent – Delaware State – play the University of Michigan. The Aggies opponent this week after the bye is Howard. The Aggies have faced the Bison five times after a bye week. The Aggies are 4-1 in those games. The last time N.C. A&T faced the Bison after a bye week was 1992 when the Aggies defeated Howard 16-14 in Washington, D.C.

Interview Procedures

Student-Athletes: All interviews with N.C. A&T football players must be arranged through the Sports Media Office. Player interviews will be available Monday-Thursday during a typical game week.

Coach Lee: All interviews with head coach Alonzo Lee can be arranged through Brian Holloway at (336) 334-7141 or (336) 328-6719. Coach Lee typically does interviews between 11 a.m.-11:45 a.m. daily. He does not do interviews on Friday.

Football Practices

The N.C. A&T football team conducts practices Sunday and Tuesday through Friday during the regular season. The practices are generally open to the public Tuesday through Thursday unless otherwise noted by the Sports Media Office. N.C. A&T reserves the right to refuse anyone access to practice if it is deemed not to be in the best interest of N.C. A&T State University.

Media Parking & Will Call

The media parking lot is located to the west of Aggie Stadium in Parking Lot A4 off of East Lindsay. The media Will Call is located in front of Aggie Stadium near the ticket booths. Parking is limited so anyone requesting a parking pass later in the week is not guaranteed to receive one.

Locker Room Policy

The N.C. A&T locker room is closed to the media at all times. Following all home games, Alonzo Lee and designated players will address the media in the multi-purpose room inside the Bryan Fitness and Wellness Center. Road accommodations for coach Lee and N.C. A&T players to meet with the media will be made based on the facility and the visiting team's media policy.

Press Credentials

All media attending N.C. A&T football home games must apply for and be issued press credentials. Requests for credentials should be made in advance by email and directed to assistant athletics director for media relations Brian Holloway. Priority is given to daily newspapers, major magazines and electronic media in the geographic areas of the competing teams. Those wishing to cover the Blue and Gold Marching Machine must first contact band director Dr. Kenneth Ruff at (336) 334-7776 or kgruff@ncat.edu for prior approval.

Aggie Stadium Press Box

The press box has limited space. One-third of the press box is designated for the chancellor and his guest. The middle portion of the box is set aside for game operations. The final third of the box is for media only. Priority will be given to those media organizations that cover N.C. A&T and the opponent on a routine basis. Visiting radio must conduct its broadcast from the roof of the press box.

The Howard Scouting Report

Howard has had some offensive troubles like N.C. A&T. The Bison has scored just 14 points over the last three games, including a shutout loss to Hampton. Floyd Haigler is the Bison's starter at quarterback. Haigler has thrown for 750 yards and four touchdowns on 42.5 percent passing. Haigler threw the ball 44 times for 193 yards and a touchdown in a win over Winston-Salem State. On the ground, the Bison is led by Andra Williams who is averaging 4.0 yards per carry. But like most of the Bison runners, he has yet to score a rushing touchdown. The Bison has scored only one rushing touchdown all season. Defensively, inside linebacker Ian Simon leads the Bison with 40 tackles. Keith Pough leads the Bison in tackles for loss with 7 ½ tackles for loss. Defensive end Wil Croner has 4 ½ tackles for loss.

Inside the Numbers...

- 1 – In 12 seasons as a defensive coordinator at three different MEAC schools, Alonzo Lee's defenses have finished No. 1 in the conference five times.
- 2 -- The number of wins the Aggies need to secure their first winning season in six years.
- 4 -- The number of wins the Aggies have in the bank thus far. The Aggies won three games over the previous three seasons.
- 5 – The Aggies received five preseason honors. Senior Jarrell Herring earned preseason All-American honors from Consensus Draft Services. CDS also named senior linebacker Andre Thornton and junior offensive lineman Enoch Cohen preseason All-HBCU. Thornton and senior defensive end Tyre Glasper earned preseason second-team all-MEAC honors.
- 5 – Is the number of three-year starters the Aggies have on their 2009 defense.
- 6 – It has been six seasons since the Aggies have had the No. 1 defense in the conference. The defensive coordinator of that team was Alonzo Lee.
- 6 -- The number of 50-yard punts, freshman Alex Grubb has booted this season for the Aggies.
- 7 – Seven of Lee's 12 last defenses finished among in the top 40 defenses in the nation.
- 11 -- Is the number takeaways the Aggies have this season. Only one team -- S.C. State -- has caused more turnovers than the Aggies.
- 16 -- Is the number of sacks the Aggies posted last season. They have nine so far this season.
- 16 – Is the number of tackles senior Andre Thornton needs to move into the Aggies top-10 list all-time. Thornton comes into the season with 234 career tackles.
- 20 -- The number of interceptions the Aggies have had the last three seasons. The Aggies have six in the first five games this season.
- 41 – The number of straight games safety Nick Clement has played in as an Aggie.

Bison/Aggie connections

The biggest connection between the Bison and the Aggies is a Stanfield connection. N.C. A&T starting defensive tackle Micah Stanfield's brother is a sophomore linebacker for Howard. Stanfield has started six games for the Aggies this season and has 13 tackles. His brother has played one game for the Bison. North Carolina A&T head coach Alonzo Lee is from Washington, D.C., and attended Dunbar High School. The Bison has two North Carolina natives on the team in Brandon Sherman of Winston-Salem Parkland and Bradley Bush-Johnson who attended Charlotte Independence, the same school Aggies senior linebacker Andre Thornton attended.

A Glance at the Aggies 2009 Opponents

Including Delaware State, who will forfeit a game to the Aggies this season, N.C. A&T's 11 2009 opponents were 63H-64 last season. The good news for the Aggies is their first seven opponents were 30-49 last season. The bad news is, the final three opponents the Aggies will face were 27-9 in 2008, including defending MEAC Champion S.C. State. There is no difference in the Aggies schedule other than not playing Johnson C. Smith this season. Four of the Aggies opponents – Hampton, Bethune-Cookman, Florida A&M and S.C. State – had winning records last season. Two of the Aggies opponents – Coastal Carolina and Morgan State – had .500 records. Meanwhile, five of the opponents had losing records.

Saturday's Captains vs. MSU

The four men who walked out as captains for the Aggies on Saturday were wide receiver Giorgio Lowrance, senior quarterback Carlton Fears, senior defensive end Tyre Glasper and senior defensive lineman Adam Beal. All four players are seniors with two of the players – Beal and Glasper – being fifth-year seniors. Fears, a junior college transfer, was the only player who has been at N.C. A&T less than two years. Despite the Aggies having 51 players from North Carolina, Lowrance was the only captain on Saturday from North Carolina. Fears is from Georgia and Beal and Glasper are from Detroit.

Recapting the Morgan State

...The Aggies five forced turnovers is the most turnovers they have forced since October 1, 2005 when the Aggies forced five turnovers against Tennessee State in the Circle City Classic in Indianapolis. The Aggies forced six turnovers against Morgan State on October 11, 2003.

...Thirteen points are the fewest points scored in the N.C. A&T-Morgan State series since 1997 when the Aggies defeated Morgan State 7-6 in Baltimore.

...Patrick Courtney is just 4-for-12 from field goal range this season, but he had been consistent with his extra points. His missed extra point against Morgan State was just his second miss of the season. Courtney is 8-for-10 in extra points this season.

...Career highs were made by two Aggie individuals against Morgan State. Wallace Miles caught a career-high seven passes for 84 yards and sophomore Mike Mayhew caught a season-best five passes.

...The Aggies held the Bears to 224 yards of total offense. It was the second time this season the Aggies have held an opponent under 250 yards of total offense. The Aggies have held all but one opponent to under 315 yards of total offense. Only Coastal Carolina has gained more than 350 yards against the Aggies this season.

Miles catches up to other receivers

Wallace Miles caught seven passes against Morgan State on Oct. 10, 2009 for 84 yards. It was the most receptions made by any other Aggies receiver this season. It was one of the best performance by an Aggies receiver over the past six seasons. Here are some other outstanding performances.

Player	Yards-Rec	Date of Game
Brandon Trusty	153-14	11/19/05
Brandon Trusty	113-9	11/12/05
Curtis Walls	115-8	9/23/06
Doug Brown	202-7	11/20/04
Brandon Trusty	102-7	10/30/04
Wallace Miles	84-7	10/3/09
Giorgio Lowrance	115-6	9/13/08
Wallace Miles	28-6	9/17/08
Wallace Miles	42-6	9/5/09

Defensive improvements

North Carolina A&T has made dramatic improvements on the defensive side of the ball. The Aggies rank in the top 25 in five different defensive categories nationally. Last season this time, the Aggies defensive rankings were not as high. Here is how the Aggies have improved over last season this time.

Category	Ranking	2008 Ranking
Pass Eff. Defense	13th	20th
Total Defense	19th	38th
Scoring Defense	17th	61st
Turnover Margin	10th	81st
Pass Defense	4th	8th

Senior Redemption

The 12 North Carolina A&T seniors have had a rough three years and for the Aggies nine four and five-year seniors, it has been even tougher. Over their first two years, they went a disappointing 0-22. But this season has seen them come into this week's game against Howard with a 4-3 record and they have a shot at the school's first winning season since 2003. The Aggies nine four and five-year seniors are linebackers Jamison Hedgepeth, Andre Thornton, defensive end Tyre Glasper, defensive tackle Adam Beal, safety Nick Clement, receivers Giorgio Lowrance, Cedric Byrd, safety Vernon White and offensive lineman Nate Anderson.

What the forfeit means for the A&T

North Carolina A&T did indeed receive an overall and conference win last week when Delaware State forfeited the game to complete an obligation it had with the Big 10's Michigan Wolverines. But the NCAA does not recognize forfeits as wins, therefore a win will not be recorded in any record keeping procedures concerning N.C. A&T through the NCAA. This means the NCAA will not record a career-record win for head coach Alonzo Lee. It considered a "No Contest" in the eyes of the NCAA. The MEAC does recognize the win mainly for the sake of the conference race. The Aggies now has more conference wins than they have had in the last four years combined.

Running Back by committee

The Aggies have been using every resource they have to run the football this season. Not only have running backs Tony Coles, Mike Mayhew and Dontavious Payne seen a lot of action this season, but quarterback Carlton Fears and receiver Larry Raper also see carries in the Aggies offense. The multiple runners have kept the Aggies backfield healthy this season, and it has resulted in the Aggies having the fifth-best rushing attack in the MEAC this season. Mike Mayhew leads the way with 323 yards rushing, which ranks him fifth in the conference. Against Morgan State, the carries were split evenly. Quarterback Carlton Fears carried the ball 16 times, while running backs Dontavious Payne and Mike Mayhew carried the ball 11 and 10 times respectively.

Homecoming Stretch

The North Carolina A&T football team is playing in the second of three straight homecoming games. The Aggies lost to Morgan State two weeks ago during the Bears' homecoming. This week the Aggies travel to Washington, D.C., to face the Bison for its homecoming. Next week the Aggies will come home for their own homecoming against Bethune-Cookman. It will be the Aggies final home game of the season.

A Year Ago Against the Bison

The Aggies game against Howard earned a lot of press because it was the game played after head coach Lee Fobbs was dismissed from his position. Therefore, it was the first game coached for interim head George Ragsdale. The Aggies completed only five passes in the game with Wallace Miles, Derek Gould and Cedric Byrd catching one pass apiece. The Aggies held the Bison to 217 yards of total offense. Sophomore cornerback Quay Long had the game-winning forced fumble and Jarrell Herring had the game-winning recovery with 46 seconds remaining in a one-point game. Long had a game-high eight tackles and three pass breakups in the game. Howard quarterback Floyd Haigler threw the ball 37 times last season with 20 completions and two interceptions. Haigler also scored on a 7-yard touchdown. The Bison held the Aggies to 190 yards of offense. Wil Croner had six tackles and recovered two fumbles.

An Aggies Win Means

...The Aggies will be two-games over .500 this late in the season since the Aggies won the MEAC Championship in 2003. It will also be the Aggies third conference win of the season. The Aggies came into this season winners of just three conference games in the last five years.

...The Aggies will win their first game in Washington, D.C. since the 1998 season. It will also be the Aggies second straight win over the Bison. The Aggies haven't had back-to-back wins over the Bison since the 03-04 seasons.

...The Aggies will be one step closer to finishing the season with a winning season. The Aggies close the season with three of their final four games on the road, including the Howard Bison today.

...The Aggies will keep the Howard Bison winless in the conference this season. The Bison come into today's game with an 0-3 MEAC record.

NO TURNOVERS ARE KEY

North Carolina A&T is on pace to have one of its best turnover margin campaigns in school history. The Aggies rank second in the conference in turnover margin behind S.C. State. The Aggies have a plus-8 turnover margin, which if they keep it up will be one of the best takeaway seasons the Aggies have ever had. The Aggies highest turnover margin in the last 10 seasons was a plus-13 margin in 2003. In each of the Aggies championship seasons except for 1986, they have had a plus-double digit turnover margin.

Top Turnover Margin Seasons

Season	Takeaways	TO Margin
2009	16	+8
2003	19	+13
1999	20	+14
1992	23	+16
1991	22	+11
1986	25	+8

It's a Family Affair

Quay Long is not the first person in his family to play for a historically black college or university. In fact, he is the third of four brothers to play college football for an HBCU. And he is the third brother to play in the secondary for an HBCU. Long's brother Vontrae played safety for Howard from 1999-02. Vontrae Long was the MEAC Rookie of the Year in 1999 and he was a three-time first-team All-MEAC selection as well as a three-time All-American. Long's brother Brandon Long played for Livingstone College 2004-07. If Long continues to play well, he can continue the "Long" tradition of playing well in an HBCU secondary.

Grubb-ing for more

Freshman punter Alex Grubb has put 13 of his 41 punts inside the 20-yard line this season. Seven of those punts have gone inside the 10-yard line. Grubb's excellent punting has helped in the improvement of the Aggies defense. Grubb has five punts over 50 yards this season and he is averaging 36.1 yards per punt.

Going Young Early and Often

The Aggies appear to have made a decision to go with their talented youth for the rest of the season. The Aggies have already started and giving significant playing time to 20 players who are either sophomores or freshmen. In fact, the Aggies leading receiver and rusher are sophomores. The following is a list of sophomores and freshmen who have earned significant playing time.

The Youth

Player	Class	Starts
WR Buster Cooper	FR	2
K Patrick Courtney	FR	N/A
DB Justin Ferrell	SO	6
DB D'Vonte Graham	FR	5
P Alex Grubb	FR	N/A
OL Thomas Hearn	SO	5
DB Quay Long	SO	4
RB Mike Mayhew	SO	5
WR Wallace Miles	SO	5

The Mad Tackler

Andre Thornton is slowly moving up the all-time tackles list for N.C. A&T. He has 246 career tackles, 19.5 tackles for loss and 10 pass deflections for his career. Thornton has 25 tackles this season. He had a season-high seven tackles against Norfolk State and Hampton. Thornton has averaged 73.7 tackles per season since being an Aggie. At that pace, he will come close to finishing with 300 career tackles, which would put him in the top 7 all-time. He needs just 15 tackles to move into the top 10 all-time on the list.

Leading Tacklers All-Time

No.	Player	Tackles
1.	Demetrius Harrison	373
2.	Johnnie Coleman	358
3.	Mike Hamilton	333
4.	Dwaine Board	319
5.	Chamar Milton	313
6.	Rodney Edwards	305
7.	Ricardo Small	304
8.	Ernest Riddick	285
9.	B.J. Little	281
10.	Kevin Little	261

Making All The Starts

North Carolina A&T senior quarterback Carlton Fears has started all six games for the Aggies this season. If he is able to start the remaining four games for the Aggies, he will become the first Aggie to start every game at quarterback since Maseo Bolin did it in 1995. Bolin was a senior when he made those 11 starts in '95.

Cracking the Top 10

The Aggies moved ever so closer to earning their first ranking in the SBN Poll in four seasons. The Aggies garnered 23 votes this week, 14 behind No. 10 Alabama A&M in the poll this week. A win over the Bison this weekend could enter the Aggies into the poll. The Aggies last appearance came in 2004 when the Aggies were coming off of their 2003 MEAC Championship season. The SBN poll has traditionally determined the mythical Black College National Champion.

Third Down Defense

The Aggies have been remarkable defensively on third down. The Aggies are good at getting offenses off the field by stopping them on third down. The Aggies rank third in the nation, having halted drives on third down by limiting opponents to 17 third down conversions in 77 tries. Therefore, teams have converted third downs 22.1 percent of the time. The Aggies are on pace to have the best defensive showing in terms of preventing third down conversion since the 1995 team limited teams to just a 24 (33 of 135) percent third down conversion rate.

Nationally Ranking

3rd down efficiency

School	3rd down con.	Pct.
1. Bethune-Cookman	13	18.0%
2. Elon	18	20.9%
3. N.C. A&T	17	22.1%
4. Dayton	21	23.6%
5. Jacksonville	23	25.27%
6. St. Francis (Pa.)	22	25.29%
7. Alabama A&M	23	25.36%
8. Central Conn. St.	17	25.76%

Interception Brothers

The Aggies have two defensive backs who have a pretty good knack for being in the right place at the right time. Sophomores Quay Long and Justin Ferrell have three interceptions apiece this season. They are tied for the league-lead in interception and both players rank are tied for 21st in the nation in interceptions. Both men will have to garner a few more picks before they are able to catch Curtis Burgins, who owns the single-season record for INT's with eight.

The Roster Breakdown

The Aggies are hoping for success this season, but they definitely built for the future. The Aggies roster consists of 31 true freshmen and six redshirt freshmen. There are also 21 sophomores on the roster to go along with 16 juniors and 14 seniors. The N.C. A&T football team is represented by 14 states and Washington, D.C. By far North Carolina is represented the most with 51 players from the Old North State. The state of Florida is represented well with eight players on the roster. The Aggies roster also has six players from Georgia and three players apiece are from California, Michigan and Maryland. The other states represented include Louisiana, New York, South Carolina, Kentucky, Alabama, New Jersey and Tennessee.

Lee's Tour Continues

Coach Alonzo Lee's tour through the schools he once coached at continues today when the Aggies face Howard Lee served as Howard's linebackers coach from 1983-87. In fact Howard is the first MEAC school to employ Lee. In 1987, Lee helped the Bison win the MEAC Championship when served as the program's assistant head coach. Lee is also a Washington D.C., native. Lee has one more stop on his initial reunion tour through the MEAC. The Aggies face Florida A&M on Nov. 7 in Tallahassee.

Streak buster?

Senior defensive back Nick Clement is listed as probable for the Aggies game against Howard with a damaged finger. If by chance Clement does not play on Saturday, it would be one of the more impressive streaks on the team. Clement has been as durable as any Aggie over the past four seasons with 40 consecutive games played. If he can not go, then the longest streak on the team will belong to Jamison Hedgepeth.

Keeping it close

A lot has been made about the Aggies inability to score in the red zone. Going into Saturday's game, the Aggies have come away with a touchdown six out of the 21 times they have been in the red zone. But on the other side, the Aggies have allowed opponents inside their red zone just 13 times this season. Out of those 13 times, the Aggies have allowed their opponents to score touchdowns five times. Five other times, teams have had to settle for field goals.

The Aggies Red Zone Trips

The Aggies have made 21 trips into the opponents red zone and have come away with 10 scores. The following is a breakdown of those trips to the red area. The Aggies convert 48 percent of the time in the red zone.

ALONZO LEE HEAD COACH

- In 12 seasons as a defensive coordinator at Morgan State, Hampton and North Carolina A&T, Lee has had the No. 1 defense in the MEAC five times.
- Lee Gets Defensive
Seven of Lee's last 12 defenses finished among the top 40 defenses in the nation. Five of those defenses ranked among the top 15 in the nation.
- There are nine schools eligible to compete for an MEAC Championship. Lee has coached at five of those schools, including Howard, Florida A&M, Hampton, N.C. A&T and Morgan State.
- As an assistant coach, Alonzo Lee has won seven MEAC titles at five different schools. Three of those championships came with Lee serving as the defensive coordinator. Some of the best coaches in the country have mentored Lee. Lee played for Darrell Mudra (168-77-3 career record) at Eastern Illinois. Mudra built solid programs at Adams State College, North Dakota State, Eastern Illinois, Northern Iowa and Western Illinois.
- He also coached at Florida State and Arizona. Lee also played under John Teerlinck (current Indianapolis Colts defensive line coach) at Eastern Illinois. He also coached under legendary college football coaches Willie Jeffries, Billy Joe and Joe Taylor.
- During his 12 seasons as a defensive coordinator, Lee coached 13 All-Americans. Those players were either AFCA, Associated Press or SBN Black College All-Americans.

GAME 1
A&T 19, WSSU 10
SEPTEMBER 5, 2009
BOWMAN GRAY STADIUM

Senior quarterback Carlton Fears threw for 131 yards on 17-for-31 passing, and he added 78 yards rushing and a touchdown to lead the Aggies to a 19-10 win over the Rams at Bowman Gray Stadium.

It was the first career win for Aggies head coach Alonzo Lee. He becomes just the fifth Aggies head coach to win his debut.

The Aggies offense compiled 285 yards of offense, which is a moral victory for an offense that struggled mightily last season.

A bad snap over the head of Rams punter Landen Thayer, gave the Aggies the ball at the Rams 10 with 9:23 remaining in the game. Three plays later, with two missed field goals already on Patrick Courtney's stat sheet, Lee turned to his young kicker. Courtney responded by booming a 25-yard field through the upright for a 13-10 Aggies lead.

Another young player – defensive lineman Brandon Young – came up with the play that put the Aggies in position to clinch the victory. The Aggies flushed Rams quarterback Branden Williams out of the pocket.

In his haste to get away from Aggie defenders, Williams dropped the football and had it recovered by Young at the Rams 18. Fears collected 17 yards on the drive, and sophomore running back Mike Mayhew finished off the drive with a 1-yard touchdown with 1:55 to go.

The Aggies defense held the Rams to just 90 yards of offense and forced two turnovers.

A&T 17, NSU 13
SEPTEMBER 12, 2009
AGGIE STADIUM
 North Carolina A&T didn't allow a point over the final 44 minutes of the game to earn a 17-13 win at Aggie Stadium. The win gives the Aggies their first 1-0 start in the MEAC in four years. Their last 1-0 start came at the expense of NSU.

The Aggies overcame a slow start and a 13-3 deficit to take a 17-13 lead to open the second half. Sophomore running back Mike Mayhew carried the ball on all five plays of the Aggies 61-yard scoring drive that was aided by a five-yard Norfolk State penalty.

Although Mayhew's score ended up being the game-winning touchdown, the Spartans were not above seriously threatening to take the lead in the fourth quarter.

A 29-yard run by DeAngelo Branch and a 9-yard run by quarterback Dennis Brown gave the Spartans the ball at the Aggie 6 with just over 11 minutes to play. Three plays later, the Spartans faced a 4th-and-goal from the 1. Brown tried to take the lead with a quarterback sneak, but the Aggies defense led by middle linebacker Brandon Jackson stopped Brown's progress before he could cross the goal line.

Lee said he wanted to pinch his interior defensive lineman, while having two guys coming off the edge to guard against NSU using the agile Brown on a quarterback rollout.

The Spartans had one last drive to mount. NSU gave the Aggies cause for concern when Brown completed 10-yard out to Chris Bell on a 4th-and-8 from the Aggies 42. But the Aggies defense stiffened from there, allowing the Spartans just one yard over the next four plays. With no timeouts remaining for the Spartans, the game essentially ended when Aggies defensive end Tyre Glasper forced Brown to rush his throw to Jeremy Wicker for an incomplete pass.

GAME 3
HAMPTON 24, A&T 14
SEPTEMBER 19, 2009
AGGIE STADIUM
GREENSBORO – The North Carolina A&T football team’s 2-0 start had a lot to do with the Aggies not turning the ball over, running the ball effectively and not surrendering big plays.

Those three components were missing Saturday night as Hampton defeated the Aggies 24-14 on an ESPNU telecast from Aggie Stadium. The Aggies dropped to 0-6 on ESPN telecast. Senior Jarrell Herring led the Aggies with 12 tackles.

None of the 129 plays the Aggies (2-1, 1-1 MEAC) ran over the first two games were complemented with a turnover. The Aggies reversed that trend on Saturday with three turnovers. The third turnover was an interception thrown by freshman quarterback Lewis Kindle that led to a Brandon Roundtree 5-yard interception return for a touchdown.

Roundtree’s return gave the Pirates a 24-7 lead with 12:27 remaining in the game. Kindle spelled senior starter Carlton Fears in the fourth quarter after Fears threw for 110 yards, a touchdown and an interception on 8-for-16 passing. The drive in which Kindle threw the interception was his first time seeing action this season.

Lee said the two had competed in practice all week for the starting job against the Pirates. The two will do the same in the days leading up to the game against Coastal Carolina on Sept. 26. Lee warned that people shouldn’t focus on an Aggies quarterback controversy. All of the Aggie starting positions are up for grabs each week, according to Lee.

The Aggies had success moving the ball early. Their first drive ended at the Hampton 27-yard line on a fumble, while their second possession stopped at the Hampton 24 on a turnover on downs. The Aggies had another excellent scoring opportunity to start the second half.

Hampton (2-1, 1-0) turned the ball over on its first possession of the third quarter as Tyre Glasper and Jamison Hedgepeth stripped the football from Hampton quarterback Herbert Bynes. Jamal Wardlaw recovered at the Pirates 31. But on the first play of the Aggies drive, Roundtree stepped in front of Fears’ pass to secure the first of his two interceptions on the day. The Aggies offense did slow down in the second half. Before N.C. A&T sophomore running Mike Mayhew closed out the scoring in the game with a 59-yard touchdown run with 3:41 remaining; the Aggies had just minus-13 yards rushing in the second half.

GAME 4
COASTAL 28, A&T 7
SEPTEMBER 26, 2009
BROOKS STADIUM
CONWAY, S.C. –

Whether it is five plays or one, the North Carolina A&T football team is going to find the group of plays or play it can run effectively.

Despite making some big plays on Saturday, the N.C. A&T offense never found the consistency it was looking for in a 28-7 loss to Coastal Carolina at Brooks Stadium.

Sophomore running back Mike Mayhew led the Aggies with 84 yards rushing on 11 carries. But through the air, senior Aggie quarterback Carlton Fears threw for 99 yards on 7-for-22 passing and two interceptions. Freshman quarterback Lewis Kindle threw four passes. He completed one and had an interception.

Coastal Carolina had something to do with the Aggies woes. The Chanticleers sacked Fears four times. On the offensive end, Coastal rushed for 304 yards led by Eric O'Neal's 130 yards on 23 carries. Tommy Fraser chipped in with 98 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries. The Aggies defense did intercept two passes.

The first pick halted a threatening drive by Coastal in the first quarter as Quay Long intercepted a Zach MacDowall pass in the end zone. The second led to the Aggies only score of the game as MacDowall threw a pass out in the flats only to find senior linebacker Andre Thornton standing there for the interception at the Aggies 35-yard line.

The Aggies took over at their own 40 and quickly went deep to freshman receiver Larry Raper for a 51-yard gain to the Chanticleer 9. Raper wasn't done. On the next play, he took the hand-off on an end-around and scored a 9-yard touchdown to cut the Chanticleers lead to 14-7 midway through the third quarter. The Aggies defense kept the momentum going by holding the Chanticleers to a three-and-out series to give the offense the ball back.

Fears' 27-yard run on the Aggies ensuing drive advanced the ball to the Chanticleer 49 with 1:14 remaining in the third quarter. It was the last real offensive threat the Aggies made in the game. The next three plays after Fears' run went for no yardage, forcing an Aggies punt.

The Chanticleers took advantage. On a 3rd-and-3 from their own 45, MacDowall found Brandon Whitley for a short pass that Whitley turned into a 55-yard touchdown reception for a 21-7 Chanticleers lead. Coastal closed out the Aggies with a 39-yard touchdown run by Fraser.

GAME 5
A&T 23, NCCU 17 2
OT
OCTOBER 3, 2009
AGGIES STADIUM
GREENSBORO –
Senior quarterback

Carlton Fears connected with sophomore receiver Wallace Miles for a 24-yard touchdown pass to give the Aggies a 23-17 double overtime win over the Eagles.

Fears threw for a career-high 166 yards and two touchdowns. The Eagles were led by senior receiver Will Scott who also had a career day with five catches for 179 yards and a touchdown.

The hotly contested game marked the fifth time in the last six matchups the Aggie-Eagle game was decided by a touchdown or less. It was also the third time in the last 12 contests the game ended in overtime.

As Miles leaped over the end zone, it secured the Aggies third straight overtime win. Their last extra period win came on Oct. 8, 2005 at FedEx Field against Morgan State. There was tons of drama before Miles' game-winning score. But the actual craziness started when NCCU quarterback Michael Johnson connected with Scott for a 20-yard gain to the Aggies 10-yard line with the Eagles trailing the Aggies 17-14 with 5:02 remaining in regulation.

Three weeks ago, the Aggies had a thrilling goal line stand against Norfolk State. They found themselves in the same stingy mood on Saturday. On 3rd-and-goal from the 18-foot line, Aggies safety Vernon White sliced through NCCU blockers to stop Tim Shankle for a 2-yard loss. Freshman kicker Frankie Cardelle tied the game with a 20-yard field goal with 2:36 remaining. It appeared the Eagles would get a chance to win the game in the closing minutes as the Aggies faced a 3rd-and-18 from their own 38 with a little more than a minute remaining. But senior receiver Giorgio Lowrance was able to go up high and bring down a 33-yard reception that kept the Aggies hopes of a last-second victory alive. Three plays later, a 5-yard Mike Mayhew run put the ball on the NCCU 20 with 11 seconds remaining. But freshman Patrick Courtney's 37-yard field goal came up short, sending the game into overtime.

In collegiate overtimes, the ball is placed at the opponent's 25, and each team is guaranteed at least one possession. The first possession of overtime went to the Aggies. An unsportsmanlike penalty on a 3rd-and-8 gave the Aggies a first down at the Eagles 14. But the Aggies gained only two yards in three plays, setting up a 29-yard field goal from Courtney. His kick went wide left, leaving the Eagles with a chance to win the game. On their first possession of overtime, a face mask penalty helped the Eagles move the ball to the Aggies 10 before brining on Cardelle who narrowly missed a 49-yard field goal earlier in the game. This kick would be much shorter – 27 yards – and it was for the game. The Aggies had an answer for Cardelle's foot. They didn't let the ball get anywhere near the upright.

Senior Jarrell Herring came charging through to block Cardelle's kick, forcing overtime. Herring's blocked kick marked the fourth time in five games the Aggies have either blocked a field goal or extra point.

The Eagles took first possession in the second overtime. An unsportsmanlike penalty on the Eagles was called after the blocked field goal. Therefore, NCCU had to start its drive on the Aggies 40. The Eagles moved the ball to the 35 and sent Cardelle back out to attempt a 52-yard field goal. Cardelle's kick went through the upright, but it didn't count because his team called timeout before he kicked it.

Rison had a change of heart after the inopportune timeout. The Eagles went for it on 4th-and-5, but this time Johnson's pass sailed past Scott to end the Eagles possession. Two plays later, Miles was in the end zone.

GAME 6
MSU 7, A&T 6
OCTOBER 10, 2009
HUGHES STADIUM
BALTIMORE, Md.,

-- It's hard to figure out where to start. There could be a good case made for starting with two missed field goals.

Or perhaps the argument can be made for starting with the four trips inside the red zone that yielded only six points.

Or it is reasonable to start with five turnovers

the North Carolina A&T defense forced that yielded only six points. Maybe the 103-yard kickoff return by Justin Ferrell that was called back for an illegal block is a good place to start.

There was also a blocked extra point in a game that ended with Morgan State earning a 7-6 win over the Aggies Saturday afternoon at Hughes Stadium. Whatever the Aggies point to for the loss, the certainty is that there were plenty of opportunities the Aggies didn't take advantage of.

Senior quarterback Carlton Fears threw for 133 yards and an interception on 18-for-34 passing. He also had 50 yards rushing. Sophomore Jeremy Graham led the Aggies with 10 tackles, which marked his first career double-figure tackling performance.

The Aggies final drive of the game might have summed things up the best. With Morgan State holding on to its one point lead, the Aggies took over at their own 35-yard line with three minutes remaining. Two pass completions to sophomore receiver Wallace Miles and a 10-yard pickup off of a screen pass to sophomore running back Mike Mayhew helped the Aggies move the ball into Morgan State territory for the ninth time in the game.

On a 2nd-and-1 from the MSU 30, however, Fears was stopped for a 1-yard loss which forced the Aggies to call their final timeout with 1:05 to play. A three-yard run by Fears gave the Aggies a new set of downs. An incomplection and a 3-yard completion to Mayhew put the Aggies in a 3rd-and-7 situation from the MSU 25 as the clock ticked below 50 seconds remaining in the game.

Fears took the snap from center, rolled to his right, tried to cut back and slipped on the Bears' synthetic surface for a 9-yard loss. Fears' fall and the Aggies lack of timeouts forced the Aggies to rush on the field for a last-second field goal by Miles. Miles' desperation kick had plenty of height but came up short.

The Aggies red zone deficiencies have bothered Lee all season long. Out of the 21 times the Aggies have been in the red zone this season, they have come away with six touchdowns. Out of the 14 possessions the Aggies obtained on Saturday, nine of them went into MSU territory.

On one of those possessions inside the Bears 50 came early in the fourth quarter. The Aggies took the ball to the MSU 15, but a holding penalty and a 15-yard loss by Fears who caught a deflected pass instead of knocking it down, moved the Aggies back to the Bears 40.

The Aggies defense was stellar all afternoon. Morgan State's best drive of the day also turned out to be the game-winning drive. The Bears went 80 yards in five plays and scored on a 7-yard touchdown run by Devan James with 24 seconds remaining in the first quarter. The Bears did not have a drive over 24 yards the rest of the way.

N.C. A&T did take advantage of one Bears turnover. With the Aggies trailing 7-0, a muffed punt return by the Bears gave the Aggies the ball at the Bears 11. Three plays later, Tony Coles scored on a 1-yard touchdown with 7:03 remaining in the third quarter. But the Bears blocked the extra point, which turned out to be the difference in the game.
